Dear the Office of Initial Patent Examination's Filing Receipt Corrections,

Thank you for sending me the information regarding my patent application in July, 2002. My application number is 10/066,224. In the filing receipt, there was a correction in the spelling of my address. Would you correct the word "Kokkaidou" to "Hokkaido"? The correction was made in the copy of the filing receipt.

Your kindness is greatly appreciated.

In the meanwhile, I sent you the documentary evidence mailed on June 23th. I enclosed the international postal certificates of the payment of $ 433 to prove that USPTO had received the amount equivalent to the filing fee. At a time, in order to avoid the abandonment of my application, I enclosed the postal money order for the filing fee of $ 553 (including a late filing fee of $ 65 and extension fee of $ 55) in the documents. The documents were to explain that I paid for my filing fee twice. I haven't been notified about the details. The documentary evidence showed that my first filing fee was surely accepted by USPTO. However, on the first postal money order, the purpose of the fee was not written. I assume there may be some money in the account of USPTO that was sent from Kazuo Sakuma and the purpose of it is unknown.

I appreciate receiving the previous payment. Would you please tell me the fax number of the post dealing with such a matter by fax or e-mail?

Your immediate attention to this matter would be highly appreciated.

With many thanks, we are

Yours truly,

[Filing Date] 02/01/2002.
